Submission Warnings

- Valid report file format: TXT (plain-text) or PDF
 - Only if an assignment asks for a report
 - TXT is preferred, use PDF only if you need text formatting or inline images
 - Unicode (UTF-8) TXT is preferred

- Do not submit as doc(x) or hwp(x)
 - We don't care which word processor you use, just save-as PDF before submission
 - Score of zero will be given for students who submit their report in hwp(x)

Submission Warnings

- Valid screenshot file format: JPG
 - Avoid using PNG
 - By default, Windows may save JPG as “.JPG” with upper-case letter extension, please rename it to “.jpg”
 - Mac users: please avoid using HEIF/HEIC screenshot format

Submission Warnings

- Patch file
 - We use Git patch file for all code submission
 - Do not include non-ASCII characters in the patch files
 - Make sure to only include English and numbers (ASCII) in the patch file, including comments
 - Always make sure you're on the correct Git branch before starting your project
 - Follow Git commands correctly from each project's slides
 - If not, patch file's source state will differ from student to student
 - Never manually generate or edit the patch file
 - Always generate a new patch file through command line
 - Never copy & paste contents to the patch file from the terminal
 - Patch file must be ready to be applied correctly from the TA's computer

Submission Warnings

- Do not write “thank you” messages from LMS during submission
 - TAs appreciate it, but it messes up automation

Only write messages here if you have a note that TAs need to read
(e.g., “미니 프로젝트 2는 부분 완성하였습니다.”)
